

Course Introductions

Reading through the course introductions for each class your child will be taking, will better prepare you for the school year. Here is an outline of how to access these course introductions, along with some other very helpful OLS resources.

First, Log into your OLS.

From your OLS Homepage, access the Help Section

Select Online Help

A new page will come up. Select Course Introductions, your subject and grade

